NEWS FROM THE METROPOLIS.

The Comptrollership.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.--The Tribune says Mayor Wickham will send in the name of John Kelly this afternoon to the Board of Aldermen as the nominee for Comptroller for five years. Kelly will undoubtedly be confirmed. Andrew H. Green, the present Comptroller, will resist the occupation of the office by Kelly. This will be followed by Green's expulsion by force, and then a legal contest in Court. Green contends that the Mayor has no authority to appoint his successor, though Green's term of office expired a week ago.

Gen. Sheridan and Staff--Butler

One of the Democratic Council. NEW YORK, Nov. 27.--A Herald special from New Orleans says General Sheridan and staff left yesterday afternoon for Chicago.

The Tribune special from Washington says Gen. Butler has been retained by the Democrats as counsel in the impending canvass of the Electoral votes in Congress. The plan originated with Governor Tilden, who proposed to retain Butler's legal services and professional etiquette and custom would not permit Butler to refuse a fee, if tendered in good faith.

FOREIGN.

THE NEW LOAN TAKEN.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 27.--The subscription to the loan of one hundred million roubles, authorized by the Imperial ukase of November 1, exceeds that amount in this city and Moscow alone.

DECEASED.

DUBLIN, Nov. 27.--Chief Justice Whitelaw died yesterday.

AUSTRIA AND ENGLAND.

LONDON, Nov. 27.--It is reported that the Marquis of Salisbury's interview with Count Andrassy resulted in an agreement for a closer co-operation between Austria and England in regard to the Eastern question.

THE CONFERENCE.

LONDON, Nov. 27.--The Paris correspondent of the Times, discussing the prospects of a conference at Constantinople, says: "People even affirm that the Marquis of Salisbury, the English plenipotentiary, though on principle opposed to foreign occupation, has not an absolute predetermination, even at that point. He will discuss with unbiased mind the question of collective occupation within limits which can not alarm the Porte nor excite the suspicions of any Power."

Fire Near the Exposition Building.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 27.--An incendiary fire in the locality called Shantytown, adjoining the Centennial Exhibition, last night, destroyed the Keystone House and a couple of other frame buildings. The timely arrival of the firemen prevented a large fire. About one hundred inflammable structures are in the neighborhood of the fire, and it was unquestionably started for the purpose of plunder. The flames originated in an unoccupied building adjoining the Centennial Exposition grounds. Gunpowder was evidently used, as an explosion took place, blowing out the side of the building. Exhibition authorities have for some time feared some such attack.

THAT COUNT.

Some Facts and Many Speculations

WHICH WILL ENABLE YOU TO SEE THE SITUATION

Just as Your Inclination Suggests to You.

Every Man His Own Constitutional Lawyer.

This Morning's New York Press.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.--The Herald, editorially commenting upon what it calls the disgracefully tampering with returns in Louisiana, says the evidence was conclusive that the Supervisor and some one else had opened them and placed in the package the affidavit. It commends Senator Sherman for his honest expression of opinion that the protest was smuggled into the envelope in New Orleans, but is puzzled to conceive how he could have added that he doubted it it was done with criminal intent. It says, "How such a fraud could have been done with an honest intent passes comprehension. It is the duty of all Republicans present from other States to denounce such frauds and warn the perpetrators that they will ruin the party if they do not make an honest count of the votes. If they elect a President by such knavery they will soon realize the truth of a very old maxim, that 'the triumph of the wicked is short.'"

The Tribune, in an editorial under the caption "The Difference," says: Neither party is to be feared, is over-scrupulous just now, and yet it is to be observed that in these Southern States in dispute there was prima facie reason to expect Republican majorities. That party may fairly claim therefore to be trying to hold only what it honestly believes to be its own. It says, in fact, this is about the difference--that the Republicans in the disputed Southern States are trying to hold what they honestly believe they got, while the Democrats in the Northern States are trying by hair-splitting technicalities to grasp what they know the people never intended they should have.

The Next Congress.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.--The World from the latest advices received, says it is not possible precisely to state how the Forty-fifth Congress will stand. In the Senate, the Republicans will have a round majority. The House will probably stand 138 Democratic to 138 Republican, a loss of 22 to the Democrats.

South Carolina.

COLUMBIA, Nov. 27.--The Canvassing Board, which was imprisoned for contempt of Court by the Supreme Court, remained in jail this morning. It is expected that Judge Bond, of United States Circuit Court, will release them on habeas corpus, but he refuses to either affirm or deny the rumor to that effect. A large proportion of the Legislature elect is here and the city is filled with visitors. The Legislature meets tomorrow and serious trouble over the organization of the house is apprehended, for upon the organization of that body depends the governmentship. If the Democrats get it Hampton will be declared elected, but if the Republicans succeed in effecting an organization with a Republican Senate, Chamberlain will be declared elected.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 27.--

The following was sent from this city last night: WASHINGTON, Nov. 27. Gen. Thomas H. Ruger or Col. H. M. Black, Columbia, South Carolina: The following has been received from

"EXECUTIVE MANSION, Nov. 26. 'Hon. J. D. Cameron, Secretary of War: 'SIR--D. H. Chamberlain is now Governor of the State of South Carolina beyond any controversy, and remains so until the new Governor shall be duly and legally inaugurated. Under the Constitution the Government has been called upon to aid with the military and naval forces of the United States to maintain republican government in the State against resistance too formidable to be overcome by the State authorities. You are directed, therefore, to sustain Governor Chamberlain in his authority against domestic violence until otherwise directed.'"

"U. S. GRANT." In obeying these instructions you will advise with the Governor and dispose of your troops in such manner as may be deemed best in order to carry out the spirit of the above order of the President. Acknowledge receipt. J. D. CAMERON, Secretary of War.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.--The Herald special from Columbia, S. C., says everything is in a feverish state of excitement. Corbin will probably be held in contempt to-day, and be debarred from the privilege of practice in the State Courts. It is believed that Judge Bond will release the members of the Board of Canvassers on sham technical grounds; the purpose being the capture of the Electoral votes of the State for the Republican ticket, and, by the aid of troops, effect a Republican organization of the Legislature. The indications are that Federal bayonets will surround the State-house on Tuesday. All this will create terrible excitement, and possibly precipitate bloodshed.

Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 27.--The Returning Board spent the early part of Saturday's session in personal explanations and general discussions of side issues. Finally the Board went into executive session and took up the Parish of West Feliciana.

In executive session the Board called for the returns and announced the vote from the consolidated statements: DeSoto--Hayes, 898; Tilden, 1,305. Ouachita--Hayes, 798; Tilden, 1,800. Lincoln--Hayes, 351; Tilden, 1,664. East Feliciana--Hayes 0; Tilden, 1,737. West Feliciana--Hayes, 773; Tilden, 1,243.

Richland--Hayes, 277; Tilden, 970. Caddo--Hayes, 2,687; Tilden, 1,634. Sabine--Hayes, 23; Tilden, 906. The returns from De Soto Parish were brought in, and contained in one package, sealed with wax. When the package was broken by the members of the Board, there was found inside the consolidated statement of the votes, the Commissioner's statements and tally sheets. Attached to the returns were a large number of protests and affidavits.

The Secretary of the Board said that the package had been received on the 18th inst., and such was the entry in his register book. The returns, he said, had come by mail. In the course of inspection it was discovered that one of the protests of the Supervisor, charging general intimidation, was dated November 26, and sworn to in this city before a Commissioner of the Circuit Court. When called upon to explain how a protest dated on the 25th inst., could get into a sealed and registered package received by mail on the 18th inst., the Secretary said he had received two packages. He was detected by one of the Democratic counsel present in the act of making another entry in his book of the two packages received.

After some delay a package was produced, and found to contain a consolidated statement of the votes and the Commissioner's returns, but no protests or affidavits. The members of the Board were unable to explain the matter, and Senator Sherman, of the Republican Visiting Committee, remarked that there was no use to disguise the fact that the returns had been opened and the protest inserted after the package of returns had been received.

Florida. TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Nov. 27.--Pending the decision of Judge White on the question of the injunction against the Governor and the mandamus against the Returning Board, the Board itself has virtually settled all questions in dispute by announcing through the Secretary of State that it will begin the canvass of the vote to-day at 12 o'clock. This will give them eight working days before the enforced close of the Electoral canvass on the night of December 6. They will certainly be able to make their count complete by that time.

The Board will proceed under pretty much the same rules as now govern the Louisiana Board. A committee of five from each of the parties represented here will be admitted to its conferences. Besides the Chairmen of the State Committees will be represented by counsel. These, with secretaries, etc., will fill the room in which the votes are to be canvassed. A stenographer will be present, and will take down all the testimony, arguments, protests, &c. The Republicans appear to be quite confident that the State will be given to Hayes. The Democrats are divided into two classes. There are those of a pretty stiff element who believe that their case is so strong that the Board will be compelled to give them a verdict or simply invite eternal infamy upon themselves and their party. There are others who believe that an imperative order has gone through the Republican camp that the three doubtful States shall be counted for Hayes at any hazard, and that the Returning Board will duplicate the work of the Board in South Carolina. This latter class is not at all despondent. On the contrary, they are hopeful and energetic and contend that they will make a decision in favor of Hayes as flagrantly apparent that it will not be tolerated by even the Republican members of the Republican party.

The leaders of both parties are busily engaged in getting their testimony in shape. The Judges of the Supreme Court and Judge White left for their homes Saturday evening. It is understood the Judge will not decide the questions before him, as the Republicans have confessed judgment in both cases. There is considerable activity at military headquarters, and wire communication with Columbia is quite brisk.

to be held on Saturday night. In this case the House will meet on Monday and adjourn.

Committees to Go South.

A resolution will be introduced on Tuesday for the appointment of Committees--one to be sent to South Carolina, one to Florida and one to Louisiana, to examine into the late election in those States.

The Administration Will Back Judge Bond.

A consultation was held at the White House last night between the President and members of the Cabinet, at which it was decided to sustain Judge Bond in South Carolina in his probable conflict with the Courts of that State.

Capt. Shirley, although a native of Kentucky, spent his youth in Nashville, Tenn., from which State he was appointed a midshipman in 1839.

Murdered.

BROOKLYN, Nov. 27.--Patrick O'Leary, a watchman in the employ of the Long Island Railroad, was found dead in the freight office of the Company this morning shot through the heart. There were evidences of a struggle having taken place, but nothing in the office was disturbed.

Temporary Insanity.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 27.--Yesterday a man named Leary McDonald, of Thomaston, this county, locked up his house while his family were at church, and set fire to his clothing.

The neighbors discovered his condition, but too late to save him, and he died from his injuries. He is supposed to have been laboring under a fit of temporary insanity. He leaves a wife and two grown sons.

Appearing in the Police Court this morning Reis was fined $5 and costs, and Cordova was dismissed as it appears that he was doing all he could to protect his drunken friend.

TWO BROTHERS, John and Anthony McGurken, known as the "Red McGurkens," and a young man named Mike Kennedy, better known as "One-armed Kennedy," were arrested Saturday night in the old works of J. V. Lewis & Co., 113 East Sixth street. They were discovered by the private watchman of the establishment, who found that the door of the ware-rooms had been forced. Procuring the assistance of Sergeant Burke and three or four patrolmen, the whole party was captured under a large vat, where they had endeavored to conceal themselves.

Appearing in the Police Court this morning the cases were laid over until December 2.

As Detective Charlie Wapenstein stepped from a street car at the corner of Vine and Thirteenth streets yesterday at noon, he noticed quite a commotion among three men, who, as soon as they saw him, darted into Heuck's beer saloon. Charlie, knowing what that meant, followed quickly, and nabbed one of them who gave him the name of Jim Mitchell, but who, as is known, is O'Brien, a somewhat notorious New York thief. His companions, who were equipped with McCaffery and Jones, who are well known in the metropolis as experienced burglars. Mulge, No. 91 West Second street. The last entry showed that Hetzel had drawn $5 on Saturday evening last. The conductor of the last car on the Eighth-street Railway stated to the officer that at nearly 12 o'clock on Saturday night, when making his last trip to the western end of the line, he saw a man, almost naked, standing on the abutment of the bridge at the foot of which the clothing was found.

FROM THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Mr. Howitt has written a letter to a friend here that he will also support Mr. Cox. It is not thought that a quorum will be present for the caucus
